Wasim akram K

I am a passionate Enginner with a degree in CIVIL Enginnering. My first experience with the code was at the first time when i started my own blog. My strggle to customize the blog pages introduced me to HTML & CSS. Sooner,The excitement of havng the power to structure pages on my own sounded amazing and thats when i decided to purse Web development.

Recently, I have taken up Full Stack development porogram with FACE.I have knowledge of HTML,CSS and JavaScript,Java,C++ and data structures.Rational thought process and Goal-Oriented planning are my strengths

I am currently on the look out for a challenging role to build products that mmakes a difference.
